

INDUCTION PROGRAMME-2010-12

(Held from 2nd- 4th September 2010)

Institute of Professional Studies & Research (IPSAR)

A three day induction programme from the 2nd to 4th of September was organized in the CDA premises for the MBA and MCA students.

First Day

On the first day Mr. Dilip Ku. Mohanty General Manger, HR Head, Zindal Power was the chief Guest. He submitted that success is a challenge and we must be prepared to face it. One has to use his/her potential to the optimum. Failure is your responsibility, minimize it. He advised perception needed to be quick and should be connected to skill. The future managers as well as the working managers in marketing should have childlike inquisitiveness, Mr. Mohanty concluded.

Earlier Dr. J.K Mishra, Director IPSAR delivered the welcome address and asked the newly admitted students to quickly adjust to the new surroundings, new culture, new methods and curriculum and be prepared to face new challenges.

Prof. A.K Mishra Dean informed the chief Guest and addressed the students to introduce themselves to those present. The senior students welcomed the juniors by way of presenting a welcome song composed by Ms. Sumitra Biswal faculty member.

Dr. M.K Patra proposed vote of thanks.

Second Day:

The programme for the second day began with Prof. Ranjan Bal of Department of MBA Utkal University. He took recourse to the life history of great scientists, industrialist and businessmen to explain, how by the dint of hard work, performance and sagacity proved to be successful and have shown the way to the future generations. He also expressed how the present set of successful entrepreneurs of India of Indian origin have proved to be pioneers in their respective fields and have been playing significant role in the economic development of the country and beyond. Prof. Bal also spoke of self management and time management.

In the second session Mr. Subhashish Sahoo, Operation Manager, Axis Bank was the guest of honor. He spoke at length from his long work experience while describing the metamorphosis of the banking system gone through. He assured the students that MBA course holds a promise for career in Banking.

Final Day Orientation:

On the final day the guests of honor were Mr. Subrata Mitra ASM, Parle Products Pvt. Ltd and Mr. Rajendra Mohakud, Vice president India, Info Line Prima. It was mostly an interactive session. Having Young guest speakers, the students found it convenient to interact and express themselves. While Mr. Mitra dealt mostly with market scenario and fierce competition in every field vis-à-vis role of Managers, Mr. Mahakud described his own experience of struggle he had to go through single handed and the hardship with great patience. He advised students to work hard as success didn't come of its own; one has to strive and toil.

The three days programme ended with vote of thanks to all by Dr. M.K Patra.
